

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Amelia Bedelia
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Amelia Bedelia to answer each of the following questions.

1. What is Amelia Bedelia supposed to do at the house?

- A She was supposed to bake pies.
- B She was supposed to do all the chores on the list Mrs. Rogers left.
- C She was there to take care of some children.
- D She was there to walk the dogs.

2. What problem did Mrs. Rogers have with Amelia Bedelia?

- A The pie Amelia made was horrible.
- B Amelia was late.
- C Amelia was lazy and did not do any work.
- D Amelia did not understand the chores and did them all wrong.

3. How does Amelia's lemon-meringue pie help her in the end?

- A It was so good, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers did not fire her for her mistakes.
- B Instead of cleaning houses, she started selling pies.
- C It was the perfect dessert for the steak and chicken dinner.
- D She used the leftover lemon to make lemonade.

4. Which of Amelia's chores is an example of alliteration?

- A Trim the steak
- B Change the towels
- C Draw the drapes
- D Measure the rice

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. How did Amelia solve the problem of changing the towels? (RL.2.5)

- A She switched them with towels from another bathroom.
- B She just turned them around.
- C She took scissors and cut them in order to change them.
- D She changed them into a different color.

6. How was Amelia's point of view on the chores different than Mrs. Rogers'? (RL.2.6)

- A Amelia thought she did a good job, but Mrs. Rogers did not agree.
- B Amelia thought the chores were too hard, but Mrs. Rogers didn't.
- C Both Amelia and Mrs. Rogers do not like doing chores.
- D Amelia thought the list was way too long, but Mrs. Rogers thought it was short.

7. What do we learn about Amelia from the way she understands the chore list? (RL.2.7)

- A She has never cleaned a house.
- B She doesn't know how to read.
- C She likes to do everything wrong.
- D She doesn't know that some words have more than one meaning.

8. According to Amelia, how are lights like pillows and babies? (RL.2.9)

- A They need to be aired out.
- B They are soft.
- C They cry a lot.
- D Everybody loves them.

9. Based on what you read, what will most likely happen next? (RL.2.10)

- A She will get fired.
- B She will bake more lemon-meringue pies.
- C She will go on vacation.
- D Amelia will have to pay for all the things she ruined.

Answer Key

