

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Should I Share My Ice Cream? CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Should I Share My Ice Cream? to answer each of the following questions.

1. What does Elephant think about sharing with his friend, Piggie?

- A cookies
- B ice cream
- C candy
- D nothing

2. What lesson did Elephant learn in the story Should I Share My Ice Cream?

- A Friends make mistakes.
- B Friends are not nice.
- C Friends should share.
- D There is no lesson.

3. What is Elephant's problem in Should I Share My Ice Cream?

- A Elephant can't decide whether or not to share his ice cream.
- B Elephant can't find his best friend Piggie.
- C Elephant is sad because he does not have a friend.
- D Elephant does not like ice cream.

4. What word shows that Elephant described his ice cream using his five senses?

- A awesome
- B nice
- C super
- D sweet

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. We know Should I Share My Ice Cream? is fiction because of which of the following details? (RL.1.5)

- A The book explains how to make ice cream.
- B The book contains a map of the town where Elephant and Piggie live.
- C In the story, Elephant and Piggie can talk.
- D In the story, Elephant is gray.

6. Who is telling the story in Should I Share My Ice Cream? (RL.1.6)

- A The narrator
- B Piggie
- C Elephant
- D The author

7. How do the illustrations help you understand why Elephant decided not to share his ice cream? (RL.1.7)

- A The illustrations show that Elephant did not have anyone to share his ice cream with.
- B The pictures show that Elephant's ice cream melted and fell on the ground.
- C The illustrations show that Elephant ate all of his ice cream himself.
- D The pictures did not show ice cream.

8. How does Elephant and Piggie the same? (RL.1.9)

- A Elephant and Piggie both like green ice cream.
- B Elephant and Piggie both share their ice cream right away.
- C Elephant and Piggie both like cake better than ice cream.
- D Elephant and Piggie both like chocolate ice cream.

9. Use what happened in Should I Share My Ice Cream? to predict what Elephant will do the next time he buys an ice cream cone. (RL.1.9)

- A Elephant will share his ice cream with Piggie right away.
- B Elephant will eat the ice cream himself.
- C Elephant will not buy ice cream ever again.
- D Elephant will spend a lot of time trying to decide if he should share his ice cream.

Answer Key

