CCSS Assessment

Directions: Use what you know about The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane to answer each of the following questions.

How do the illustrations show what the life of a hobo is like for Bull?

Answers may vary. Sample answers include: The illustrations show that Bull does not have very much money because he has holes in his clothes.

RL.5.7

Think about another story (book or movie) that contains a character that is not a person. How is that story similar to this one?

Answers will vary. Sample answers include: The movie Toy Story is similar because it has characters that are not people, but they have thoughts and feelings.

RL.5.9

The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane is a work of fantasy. Explain how you know it is part of that genre. Would you want to read another book from the fantasy genre? Why or why not?

Answers will vary. Sample answers include: I know that this book is a work of fantasy because the main character is a china rabbit and he has thoughts and feelings. I would enjoy reading another fantasy book because I like reading about things that are not real life.
