

Tigers
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____
Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Tigers to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these details from the book is the MOST important?

- (A) Tigers are losing their habitats and need our help.
- (B) Some tigers have blue eyes.
- (C) A dinosaur is an example of an extinct animal.
- (D) Tigers mainly eat plants.

2. Which of these BEST describes the main idea of this text?

- (A) Cats
- (B) Tiger cubs
- (C) Bengal tigers
- (D) Tigers

3. Which of these best describes the sequence a tiger cub goes through as it becomes an adult?

- (A) First, tiger cubs are born one at a time. Next, they live with their father, mother, brothers, and sisters. Last, they leave their family around 5 years old.
- (B) First, tiger cubs are born two or three at a time. Next, they live with their mother and drink her milk until they are ready to eat meat. Last, they leave their family around 2 years old.
- (C) First, tiger cubs are born. Then, their mother leaves them. Last, they grow up alone.
- (D) First, tiger cubs are born two or three at a time. Next, they eat meat from the day they are born. Last, they live together with their families for the rest of their lives.

CCSS Assessment

4. If you came to a word you didn't know while reading Tigers, what nonfiction text feature could you use to find the meaning? (RI.2.4)

- (A) Table of Contents
- (B) Labels
- (C) Glossary
- (D) Captions

5. Where can you find the Table of Contents in the text? (RI.2.5)

- (A) At the end of the text
- (B) In the middle of the text
- (C) The text has no Table of Contents.
- (D) At the beginning of the text

6. Which of these BEST describes the author's purpose for writing this book? (RI.2.6)

- (A) She wrote the book to teach the reader all about tigers.
- (B) She wrote the book to make the reader laugh.
- (C) She wrote the book to convince the reader to visit the zoo.
- (D) She wrote the book to teach the reader about cats.

7. Which of these is a conclusion you can draw from looking at the map in the "Tigers in Trouble" chapter found on pages 24 and 25 of the text? (RI.2.7)

- (A) Bengal tigers are stronger than South China tigers.
- (B) There are fewer tigers living in Asia now than there used to be.
- (C) There are fewer people living in Asia now than there used to be.
- (D) All tigers are extinct.

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

Answer Key

