

We Are Water Protectors
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____
Score: / 8

Directions:

Use what you know about We Are Water Protectors to answer each of the following questions.

1. What is the main idea of We Are Water Protectors?

- A The importance of taking care of our pets
- B The importance of protecting water and nature
- C A girl's adventure in a new town
- D The story of a family moving to a new home

2. What is the central lesson or message of We Are Water Protectors?

- A Snakes are bad for the earth.
- B Water can clean everything.
- C We must protect our water and the Earth.
- D People should plant trees every year.

3. How does the girl in the story feel about the land and the water?

- A She feels sad and worried.
- B She feels happy and hopeful.
- C She feels angry and confused.
- D She feels afraid and helpless.

4. What does the phrase "the water is sacred" mean in the story?

- A The water is dirty and needs to be cleaned.
- B The water is something to be respected and protected.
- C The water is only for people to drink.
- D The water is warm and clean.

CCSS Assessment

5. How does the author use the structure of the story to convey the importance of protecting water? (RL.3.5)

- A The story describes how the girl begins by learning about water and ends with her taking action to protect it.
- B The story starts with the girl talking about her favorite games and then shifts to water protection.
- C The story focuses only on the girl's personal life and does not discuss the importance of water.
- D The story tells a random collection of events with no clear structure or message.

6. What is the narrator's point of view in We Are Water Protectors? (RL.3.6)

- A The narrator is telling the story from the perspective of the water.
- B The narrator is telling the story from a fish's point of view.
- C The narrator is telling the story from a teacher's point of view.
- D The narrator is telling the story from the girl's point of view.

7. How do the illustrations help show the importance of protecting water? (RL.3.7)

- A The illustrations show the water looking dark and scary.
- B The illustrations show the land and water being damaged.
- C The illustrations show water in bright colors, making it look special.
- D The illustrations show the girl taking a nap next to the water.

8. What is the best way to describe the text We Are Water Protectors? (RL.3.10)

- A It is a simple story with no important message.
- B It is a detailed story with an important message about protecting water.
- C It is a confusing story with no clear meaning.
- D It is a funny story with no real lesson.

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

Answer Key

