My Reading Goal for April

Reading Challenge | ©BookPagez.com

Read a book...

that rhymes	about Spring	that makes you laugh	about friends	filled with poems
about baby animals	with a healthy snack	before bed	with a friend	because you don't like the cover standing up	about things that grow	because you like the cover	that's noisy	written and illustrated by the same person
that's a fantasy	that's colorful	written by someone named Cynthia	while it's raining	that won an award

Color in each reading challenge after you finish reading the book.
