

Determine Importance

Name the three most important ideas or facts to remember from the book you read today. Why are these the most important?

Determine Importance

Describe the most important character. Why do you think this is the most important character in the book?

Determine Importance

Use 10 words or less to tell why determining importance is a smart strategy to use while reading.

Determine Importance

What was the main problem in the book you read? How was the problem solved?

Determine Importance

Name 3 important events and 3 non-important events in the book you read today.

Determine Importance

What did you learn while reading today? How does this information connect to something you already knew?

Determine Importance

Find a place in your book where the author describes a setting. Which words are most important to notice? Why do you think so?

Determine Importance

What new information did you learn today? How does the information you learned support the main idea of the text?

Determine Importance

Describe the most important event in the book that you're reading. Explain why you think that event is the most important.

Determine Importance

What text features did the author use to help you determine the important information in your book?

Determine Importance

How do you decide what is most important to remember about a text?

Determine Importance

How do you determine importance when you read fiction?

Determine Importance

How do you determine importance when you read nonfiction?

Determine Importance

What is the main idea of the book that you are reading? How do you know?

Determine Importance

What is the main idea of the book you're reading? How could you learn more about this idea?

Determine Importance

How can you tell if a character is important?

Determine Importance

How do you decide if specific words are important to pay attention to while reading?

Determine Importance

What other comprehension strategies do you use when you determine important characters, settings, events, or information?

