My Reading Goal for May

Reading Challenge | ©BookPagez.com

Read a book...

that you think looks boring	that is the first in a series	with no pictures	while sitting in the sunshine	to a pet in the car	that your mom liked when she was little	that's quiet	with a green cover	that's a biography about trying new things	written by someone named Chris	while eating breakfast	that you liked when you were little	about outer space on a Sunday	that's been made into a movie	that takes place in a different country	to someone special	about best friends

Color in each reading challenge after you finish reading the book.
