Directions:

1. These are cause and effect cards for The Undefeated. Read the cards.
2. Cut out the cause and effect cards.
3. Mix the cards up then place them face down in front of you.
4. Turn two cards over. If the cause and effect are a match, keep the cards and place them on your sorting mat. If they don't match flip them back over.
5. Play until you find all the matches.
6. Hint: The cards with a square are cause cards. The cards with a circle are effect cards.

The people in this book are called 'undefeated' because he wants young readers to know they have the same strength and can do great things too.

Black soldiers fought for an 'imperfect Union' because they were determined to keep fighting for equal rights and wouldn't give up.

The civil rights marchers sang 'we shall not be moved' because they believed in making their country better, even though it didn't treat them fairly.

The author ends the book by saying, 'This is for you' because they never gave up, even when things were very hard and unfair.
