Name: _____

The Undefeated

Cause and Effect

Directions:

The first part of the sentences below tell what happened (the effect) in the book, The Undefeated. Complete each sentence by telling the cause.

The people in this book are called 'undefeated' because they never gave up, even when things were very hard and unfair.

Black soldiers fought for an 'imperfect Union' because they believed in making their country better, even though it didn't treat them fairly.

The civil rights marchers sang 'we shall not be moved' because they were determined to keep fighting for equal rights and wouldn't give up.

The author ends the book by saying, 'This is for you' because he wants young readers to know they have the same strength and can do great things too.

Reading Tip!

Remember: The cause is why something happened. The effect is what happened.
