

Name: _____

Directions:

Use the sentence starters to write about five things you “swallowed” to get ready for school.

Color the face to make it to look like you.

When you're done writing, cut out your sentence strips and feed them into the mouth by sliding them through the opening. You can tape or glue them to the back, so it looks like you're swallowing all your supplies!

I swallowed a pencil to

I swallowed a notebook to

I swallowed a crayon to

I swallowed a smile to

I swallowed a glue stick

Directions:

Use the sentence starters to write about five things you “swallowed” to get ready for school.

Color the face to make it to look like you.

When you're done writing, cut out your sentence strips and feed them into the mouth by sliding them through the opening. You can tape or glue them to the back, so it looks like you're swallowing all your supplies!

I swallowed a pencil to help me write my name.

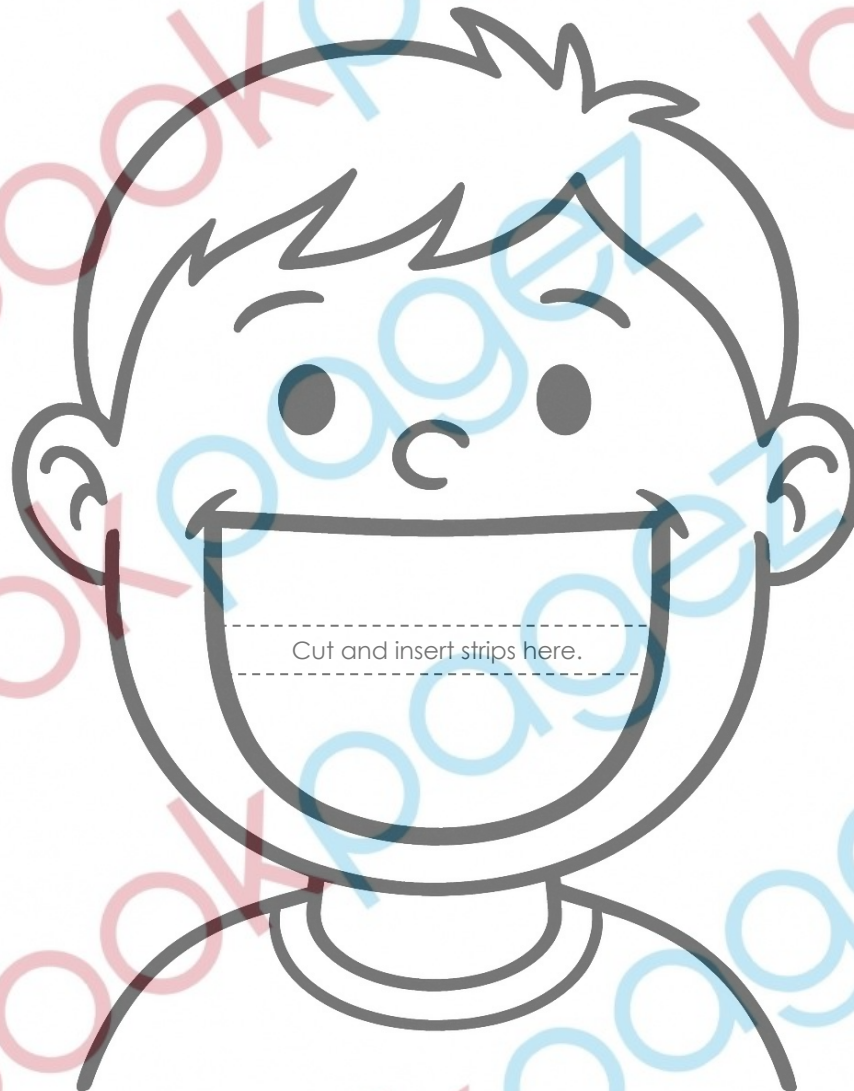

I swallowed a notebook to write down my ideas.

I swallowed a crayon to decorate my folder.

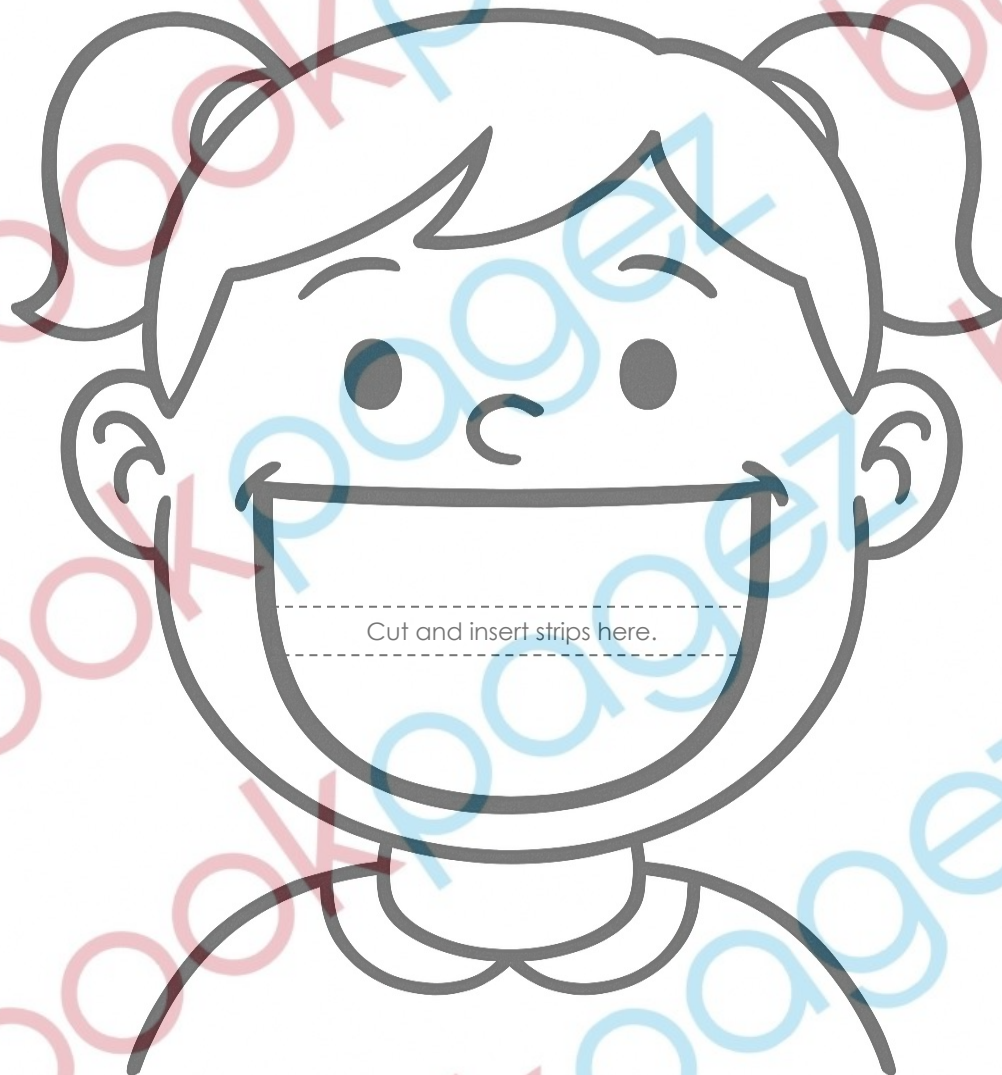

I swallowed a smile to make new friends.

I swallowed a glue stick to help things stick together.

There Was _____ Who Swallowed School Supplies

There Was _____ Who Swallowed School Supplies

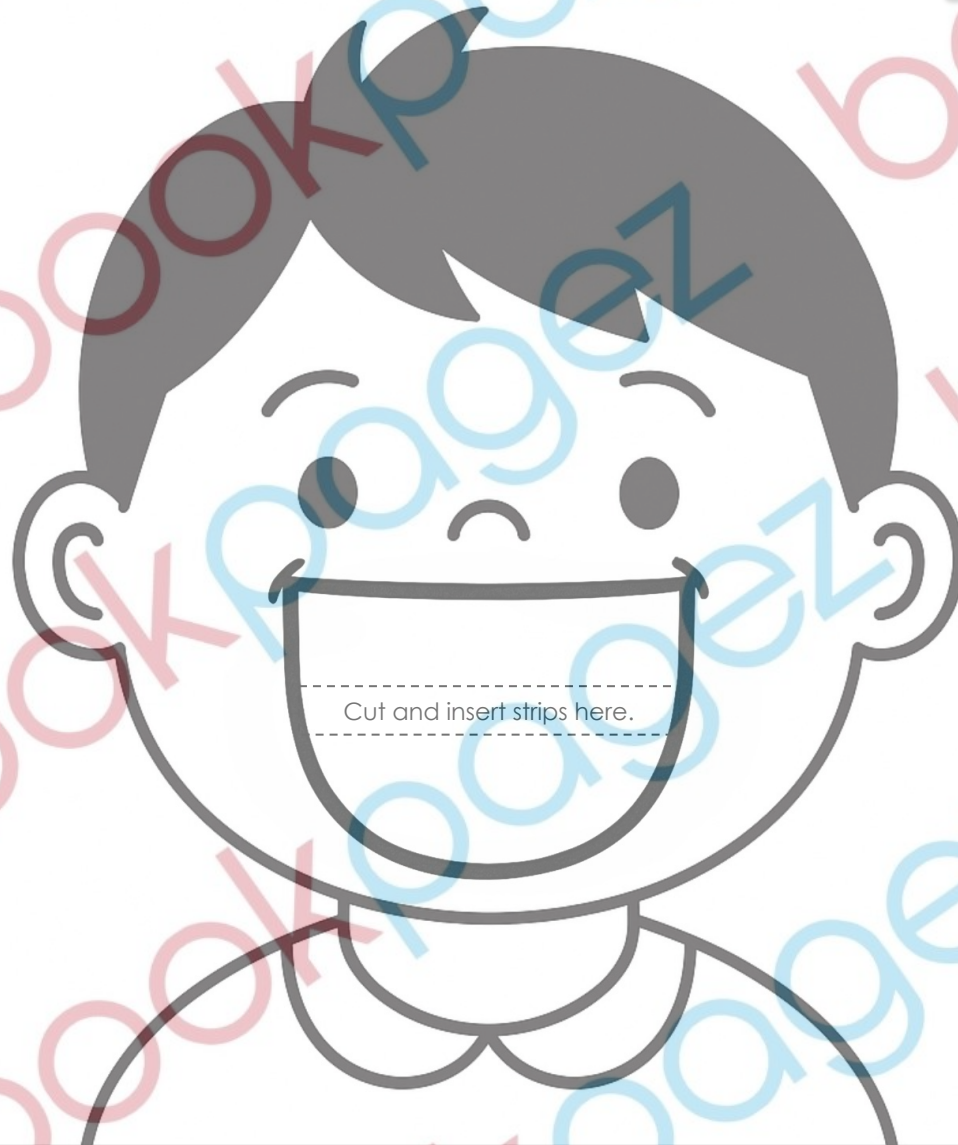

Cut and insert strips here.

There Was _____ Who Swallowed School Supplies

There Was _____ Who
Swallowed School Supplies

There Was _____ Who
Swallowed School Supplies

There Was _____ Who
Swallowed School Supplies

